

club le monde

uk press cuttings

October 13, 2002 The Mail on Sunday

*** Club Le Monde (18)

Club Le Monde also has a good soundtrack, dating from 1993, to accompany the story of one night at a rave. There are the two girls chatting in the loo all night, the public schoolboys trying to score their first Ecstasy pills, the guy in sunglasses who's everyone's best mate, the rude barmaid, the DJs and a girl trying to pierce her boyfriend's penis with a smiley badge.

What director Simon Rumley's film is trying to say is that all the world was a dancefloor back then. He might be right, and occasionally his jokes hit the mark - it's just that I remember clubbing being more fun than it appears in Club Le Monde.

Jaron Solomons